

Arthur B. Suit (- 19 Jan 1921)

Suit. Entered into eternal rest Tuesday, January 18, 1921, at 6 p.m., at St. Augustine, Florida. Arthur B. Suit, beloved husband of Grace A.L. Suit. Body will arrive in Washington, D.C., Thursday, January 20. Remains at the home of his sister, Mrs. E.S. Robinson, 2226 13 st., SE. Funeral from the Anacostia M.E. Church. Friday, January 21, at 2.p.m. (Muskegon, Mich., papers please copy)

The Evening Star, Wednesday, January 19, 1921, p. 7

Arthur B. Suit Dies

Former Navy Yard Employe Succumbs in Florida

Arthur B. Suit, formerly of this city, died Tuesday at St. Augustine, Fla., following an operation, according to word received in Washington today.

Mr. Suit was for years a master mechanic at the Washington navy yard. During the world war he was employed at Muskegon, Mich. He was for twenty years superintendent of the Anacostia M.E. Church and was well know in Methodist circles of this city.

The Evening Star, Friday, January 21, 1921, p. 17

Funeral of A.B. Suit

Funeral services for Arthur B. Suit, former master mechanic at the naval gun factory here, who died Tuesday at St. Augustine, Fla, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Anacostia M.E. Church. Master mechanics of the navy yard attended in a body. Mr. Suit is survived by his wife., Mrs. Grace A.L. Suit, and by a son Arthur B. Suit.

Mr. Suit is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace A.L. Suit; a daughter, Mildred, and a son Arthur McL. Suit. He also is survived by three sisters Mrs. Elsie S. Robinson, Mrs. Mamie E. Copes and Mrs. Eva M. Rauchenstein; a brother, Bernard P. Shields, and his step-father, Samuel E. Shields. The body will be brought to Washington for interment.