

Elizabeth Tabbs

(- 12 Jan 1830)

Tabbs. On Tuesday night, Miss Elizabeth Tabbs, after a long and protracted illness of nearly twelve months, which she bore with the utmost fortitude and resignation. She preserved all the faculties of her mind entire to the last moments; took a solemn farewell of her friends with the utmost composure, and spent her last breath in exhorting her young nieces to persist in the duties of their religion, and the practice of all the Christian virtues.

The friends and acquaintances of the deceased are invited to attend the funeral at 3 o'clock this day from the residence of Dr. Alex. McWilliams.

Will of Elizabeth Tabbs, of Washington C., D.C. (dtd. Jan. 12, 1830, probated Feb. 15, 1830, Will Book 4)

To niece Mary C. Tabbs, negro girl Betty for 6 years then to be free.

To nephew Alexander B.T. McWilliams, and Elizabeth Adelaide McWilliams, Jane McWilliams and Ann Tabbs McWilliams, to be equally divided; wearing apparel and household property not to be sold.

Wits.: Ethan Allen; Moses Tabbs; M.A. Lindsay