Last Rites Tomorrow For Victim of Fire

Miss Geneva Thompson of D Street Southeast to Rest in Congressional Cemetery

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at W.W. Chambers funeral home for Miss Geneva Thompson, 77, who was burned to death Saturday night when her dress caught fire on a Latrobe stove at her home, 1006 D street southeast. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Miss Thompson, an aunt of Capt. Bernard W. Thompson, assistant chief of detectives of the Metropolitan Police Department, was reading over the shoulder of her brother; Marion G. Thompson, when her dress caught fire from the stove back of her.
