Mrs. Minnie Tolson Services Tomorrow
Last Rites at Funeral Home Set for 2 O'Clock,
With Burial in Congressional Cemetery

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie L. Tolson, 1434 Harvard street, who died at George Washington Hospital Sunday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the W.W. Chambers Funeral Home, 1400 Chapin street. Dr. J.J. Dimon of St. Andrews Protestant Episcopal Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Tolson had been in ill health for several months, following complications resulting from a fall. She was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., but had lived here for 60 years. She was a member of the Mount Pleasant Chapter, Eastern Star, and of the Mount Pleasant Chapter, Y.M.C.A.

She is survived by her husband, Morsell A. Tolson, who has been connected with the foreign exchange service at the Smithsonian Institution for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Tolson was the daughter of the late William H. Stone, well known New York artist and illustrator.

Her father made the original lithographs from Rosa Bonheur's "Horse Fair," now in the Metropolitan Museum in New York, and also designed the original Columbian Bank Notes for the United States Treasury.
