

John W. Tucker

(- 21 Apr 1872)

Tucker. On the 21st inst. At 9 o'clock a.m., John W. Tucker aged 38 years. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend his funeral from his late residence, No. 1228 12th street n.w., Tuesday, 2 o'clock p.m.

The Evening Star, April 22, 1872

Deaths

Mr. John W. Tucker, a well-known citizen of the northern portion of the city, died at his residence on 12th street, between M and N, yesterday morning, after an illness of a few weeks. The deceased was one of the most popular of our citizens, well-known throughout the District, and had been engaged for several years as a contractor for pumps. He was a sergeant of the President's Mounted Guard, and the troop will attend his funeral tomorrow.

The Evening Star, April 23, 1872

The Funeral of the late John W. Tucker took place from his late residence, 12th street, between M and N northwest, this afternoon, and was very largely attended--Eastern Lodge, No. 7, of Odd Fellows, with Prosperi's band, and the President's Mounted Guard being present. The services were conducted by Rev. J.G. Butler and A. Holmead, and the remains were interred at (Glenwood).