

William A. Turner

(- 25 Mar 1927)

Turner. On Friday, March 25, 1927, at his residence, William A. Turner, aged 71 years. Remains resting at 250 10th st. s.e. Interment at Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, March 26, 1927, p. 2

Stricken on Street, Man Dies in Auto

Stricken ill while walking on Pennsylvania avenue, near Ninth street southeast yesterday afternoon, William A. Turner, 55 years old, 1614 E street southeast, collapsed and died in an automobile en route to Casualty hospital.

Turner was a carpenter and appeared in good health when he left his home yesterday morning. Upon arrival at Casualty hospital he was pronounced dead by Dr. Marcello Gondolfo. Coroner J. Ramsey Nevitt issued a certificate of death from natural causes.