

Mamie E. Wagner (- 28 Mar 1883)

Wagner. On March 28th, 1883, of smallpox, Mamie E. Wagner, aged 4 years 7 months and 18 days.

Dearest Mamie, thou hath left us,
We thy loss most deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Dearest, Mamie, thou hath left us,
We thy sorrows will bear;
In Heaven with the angels so happy,
We will try and meet you there.

Go, loved, go; you grandma,
Grandpa, papa, and mamma,
Heart content, and none but there,
Can only know how hard to say farewell.

None knew her but to love her.
By Her Parents.

The Evening Star, March 30, 1883

Locals

Mamie Wagner, the little girl who had been ill with smallpox at her home, No. 412 Twelfth street southwest, died Wednesday and was buried yesterday.