Death of Captain Samuel H. Walker

The remains of Capt. Samuel H. Walker, Co. D., 3d Maryland Regiment, who was shot at Neisenderffer's lager beer gardens in Baltimore, on Monday last, arrived here last evening, and was conveyed to his residence on New Jersey avenue, near the Brick Bridge, from whence the funeral will take place on tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. Capt. Walker died from the effects of the wounds received yesterday morning at Newton University Hospital, and was attended by his wife and friends in that city. Capt. W. was only twenty-four years of age, and leaves a widow and two children. He entered the service as a private of Capt. Furguson's Company, and gradually worked himself up to the position of Captain.
