

Artemus R. Warfield

( - 26 Sep 1917)

---

Warfield. On September 26, 1917, at 9:55 a.m., at the residence of his son-in-law, W.I. Collingsworth, 710 11th street southeast, Artemus R. Warfield, beloved husband of Elizabeth Warfield. Funeral services at Second Baptist Church, 4th and Virginia avenue southeast, Friday, evening, September 28, at 2 p.m. (Baltimore papers please copy).

The Evening Star, September 26, 1917, p. 9

Artemus R. Warfield Dead

Artemus R. Warfield, father of Policeman Charles E. Warfield, member of the clerical force at police headquarters, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. W.R. Collingsworth, 710 11th street southeast, this morning at 10 o'clock. The deceased who was a native of Montgomery county, Md., had been employed as engineer at the Police Court for fifteen years. He was a member of Cyrus Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and National Tent, No. 1, Maccabees and is survived by his wife and six children. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.