

Louis Frederick William Weber

(Dec 1832 – 20 Dec 1910)

---

Weber. On Tuesday, December 20, 1910, Louis F.W. Weber, beloved husband of Belle Weber in his 76th year. Funeral on Friday, December 23 at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 727 7th street southeast. Friends and relatives invited to attend. Interment at Congressional cemetery (Warrenton, Va. papers please copy).

Weber. The members of the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants, District of Columbia are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services of our late associate, Louis F. Weber at her late residence, 727 7th street southeast on Friday the 23rd inst. at 2 p.m.

Theodore Noyes, President

Benjamin W. Reiss, Recording Secretary

The Evening Star, December 23, 1910, p. 18

Louis F.W. Weber Buried

The body of Louis F.W., musician and orchestra leader, who died at his home, 725 7th street southeast last Tuesday was buried in Congressional cemetery this afternoon with Masonic honors. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. Henry S. France, pastor of Trinity M.E. Church, officiating. Pallbearers were selected from the Masonic bodies and the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants, to which the deceased belonged.