Charles A. Wheeler Dies As Result of Accident

Was Injured by Street Car Morning of March 8 -- Other Traffic Mishaps

Charles A. Wheeler, eighty-five years old, 439 12th street southeast, died at Casualty Hospital that night as a result of injuries he received about 8 o'clock the morning of March 8, when injured by a street car at 7th street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

The police were told Mr. Wheeler became ill while crossing the Avenue and fell against the car. His left leg was broken and he suffered cuts and bruises. Motorman Ellsworth Cox and Conductor Walter Carry, crew of the car, rendered assistance.

Coroner Nevitt had the body removed to the morgue. He will conduct an inquest this afternoon.
