

Charles White

(– 5 Oct 1870)

The Evening Star, October 7, 1870

Charles White, secretary to the President to sign land patents, died at Providence Hospital, on Capitol Hill, on Wednesday, in the 72d year of his age, and was buried on Thursday. Mr. White was a native of New Jersey, but resided for some years in Ohio, and subsequently in California. He had been ill for some weeks with enlargement of the liver.