

George A. White

(- 29 Mar 1889)

The Evening Star, March 30, 1889

Sudden Death of Dr. Geo. A White

Dr. Geo. A. White, the chiropodist, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his office, 1416 Pennsylvania avenue, of apoplexy. During the day he was apparently in his usual health. In the afternoon his son, who was associated with him professionally, left the office, and upon returning about 3 o'clock found his father lying unconscious on the floor. A physician was summoned, but when he arrived life was extinct. Dr. White had suffered for some time with a heart trouble. He was 55 years old, and was well known in this city having been engaged in practice here for many years. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon, and the remains will be buried in the Congressional cemetery.