Gas Fumes Fatal

Mrs. Josephine White Succumbs at Hospital; Brother Recovers

Mrs. Josephine White, forty-five years old, who was found unconscious from illuminating gas poisoning in her room at 215 B street, Monday morning, died at Casualty Hospital late yesterday afternoon. Her life was prolonged by the use of a pulmotor.

Harry Thompson, brother of Mrs. White, who was unconscious from the gas, has recovered. Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of accidental death in the case of Mrs. White.
