

Virginia G. Whitney

(- 11 Oct 1988)

The Washington Post, October 17, 1988, p. E6

Virginia G. Whitney

Lifelong Area Resident

Virginia G. Whitney, 80, a lifelong area resident who lived in Rockville, died Oct. 11 at a hospital in Dover, Del., where she was being treated for cancer.

Mrs. Whitney was born in Washington. She was a 1926 graduate of Eastern High School and also graduated from the old Wilson Teachers College.

She had been a member of the Henson Valley Christian Church in Oxon Hill before joining the Rockville Christian Church, where she had been a member since about 1982.

Her husband, Elmer H. Whitney, died in 1981. Survivors include a son, Elmer I., of Felton, Del.; a sister, Jeanette Beyer of Tequesta, Fla., and three grandsons.