

Mary Whittlesey

(- 14 Nov 1933)

Whittlesey, Mary. Suddenly, on Tuesday, November 14, 1933 at Casualty Hospital, Mary, beloved daughter of the late Comfort S. and Virginia Hyatt Whittlesey and sister of Helen D. Whittlesey. Her remains are at V.L. Speare Co., 1060 H st. n.w. Funeral from Church of the Covenant, 18th and N sts. N.w., on Thursday, November 16, at 2 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

AT REST

As the first snowflakes of Winter
Drifted on their silent way.
God Almighty to the homeland
Called our precious aunt away.

Called here to that land of beauty
Where His faithful ones find rest.
Where their toils on earth are ever
And their kindly deeds are blessed.

We shall miss her gentle presence
And her little acts of love.
But we glory that her spirit
Finds eternal rest above.

Her Devoted Niece and Nephew Thomas W. And Virginia M. Sargent.

The Evening Star, November 14, 1933

Burns Prove Fatal

Miss Mary Whittlesey, 77 Dies in Casualty Hospital This Morning

Miss Mary Whittlesey, 77 who was severely burned Sunday morning when her dress ignited from a gas range in her home, 322 E street northeast, died this morning in Casualty Hospital.

Her nephew, Thomas W. Sargent, who also was severely burned while trying to assist his aunt, is still confined to the hospital. Miss Whittlesey's death was reported to Dr. A. Magruder MacDonald, acting coroner.