

James A. Williams

(- 14 Sep 1887)

Williams. On September 14, 1887 at 2:30 a.m., at 1011 Virginia avenue southeast, James A. Williams, youngest son of Andrew J. and the late Catharine Williams in the 22d year of her age. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend his funeral Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock (Baltimore Sun please copy).

The Evening Star, September 15, 1887

Locals

Col. Wm. G. Moore has issued a general order to the Washington Light Infantry Corps to assemble at their armory at 1 o'clock p.m. sharp tomorrow to escort the remains of the late Andrew Williams, a member of company C to the Congressional Cemetery where they will be interred.