Richard I. Williams, 75, Retired Fireman, Dies

Richard I. Williams, 75, retired District fireman, died yesterday in Providence Hospital after an illness of several months. He lived at 228 Seventh street N.E.

A native of Washington, Mr. Williams was a descendent of a family living here since 1807. His grandfather, the late Zadock Williams, was a veteran of the War of 1812.

Mr. Williams attended the District schools, and joined the Fire Department in 1896. He was a member of Engine Company No. 13 at the time of his retirement in 1926.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Christ Episcopal Church, 620 G street S.E.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Effie N. Williams; a daughter, Miss Effie May Williams, a teacher at the Maury School, both of the Seventh street address, and a son, Richard E. Williams, 224 Seventh street, a member of the Metropolitan police force.

Private funeral services and burial will be held tomorrow.
