

William H. Williams

(12 Jun 1866 - 15 Jun 1875)

Williams. On Tuesday morning, June 15th, at 9 o'clock, William H. Williams, aged 9 years and 3 days, eldest son of Elizabeth and the late Edward P. Williams. Friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his mother, No. 725 8th street southeast, on Thursday evening, June 17th at 4 o'clock.

The Evening Star, June 18, 1875

The Funeral of Willie Williams

The funeral of little Willie Williams, who died on Tuesday, after three days' illness, took place from the residence of his mother, 725 8th street southeast, yesterday afternoon, and was attended by the children of the Cranch public school. Deceased was the son of Mr. Edward P. Williams, who was accidentally drowned in the Potomac a few weeks ago. He was a bright little fellow, and was to have received the medal from his school. The services were conducted by Rev. A.F. Steele, of St. Mark's P.E. Church, and the remains were interred at the Congressional Cemetery, after the children had taken a last look at the remains and sung "Nearer my God to Thee." It was remarked that this one of the most impressive funerals ever witnessed in the cemetery.