Dies Of Heart Attack

Treasury Clerk, 52, Succumbs at Georgetown Hospital

William O. Williams, 52, a clerk in the Treasury Department, died at Georgetown Hospital late yesterday, a few minutes after he had been stricken with a heart attack while in a grocery at 2501 Pennsylvania avenue.

Max Bogen proprietor of the store summoned Williams' son Everett, who took his father to the hospital. Williams, who lived at 1114 Twenty-fifth street, was treated by Dr. Joseph Outsick, but died a few minutes later.
