

Joseph Benjamin Williamson

(- 11 May 1914)

Williamson. On Monday, May 11, 1914 at 9 a.m., at Garfield Hospital, Joseph Benjamin Williamson, in his eightieth year. Services at the residence of his son, 1304 Columbia road, Wednesday, 2:30 p.m. Burial private.

The Evening Star, May 12, 1914, p. 20

Dies At The Age of Eighty

Funeral of Joseph B. Williamson Set For Tomorrow

Joseph Williamson, eighty years old, a retired contractor, died at Garfield Hospital yesterday of hardening of the arteries, after an illness of five months. Funeral services are to be held at the home of his son, J.B. Williamson, 1304 Columbia road northwest, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Joseph Kelly of the Fourth Presbyterian Church is to officiate. Interment is to be in Congressional cemetery.

Mr. Williamson was born in Washington and for many years had been prominent in the affairs of the city. He leaves two sons, Joseph B. Williamson and Samuel E. Williamson.