

Martha E. Wimer

(- 4 Aug 1935)

The Washington Post, August 7, 1935, p. 5

Martha E. Wimer, Teacher Here, Dies

Funeral services for Miss Martha E. Wimer, 67, of this city, will be held tomorrow at Gloucester, Massachusetts, where Miss Wimer died late Sunday night following a long illness. Interment will be in Congressional here, but will be postponed for a little more until Miss Wimer's father and sister are able to return from Massachusetts.

For over 25 years Miss Wimer has been a teacher of French at Central High School in Washington. She attended Goucher College in Baltimore and pursued advanced studies in French at the Sorbonne in Paris. In 1926 she received an A.B. degree and teacher's diploma from George Washington University.

Miss Wimer is survived by her father James B. Wimer and her sister Miss Marie E. Wimer, both of this city; also by another sister, Mrs. James B. Rorer, of Rio Bamba, Ecuador.