Rites to Be Held Tomorrow For Charles Wood, 62

Funeral services for Charles Wood, 62, Washington resident for 45 years, will be held at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Christ Episcopal Church, 620 G street S.E. Earlier services will be held at 1 p.m at the Lee funeral home, Fourth street and Massachusetts avenue N.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Wood died Tuesday of a heart attack at his home, 633 B st. N.E.

Born in Pennsylvania, he moved to Petersburg, Va., when a child and came to the District in 1904. He served an apprenticeship as a machinist with the J.E. Hurley Machine Co., which is no longer in business, and worked his way up to become foreman of the shop. He later resigned to become an operating engineer, a job he held at the time of his death.

Mr. Wood was a member of the Christ Episcopal Church and for a number of years was senior warden there. He also was a Mason and a Shriner.

Surviving are two brothers, Clark and Clarence Wood of Petersburg.
