

Bessie V. Woodward

(- 9 Mar 1893)

Woodward. On Wednesday, March 9, 1893 at 9 a.m., Bessie V. Woodard, aged 11 years 8 months, the daughter of Luther and Laura Woodward. Funeral from residence, 709 I street southwest, Saturday, 3 o'clock p.m. Friends and relatives invited to attend.

The Evening Star, March 13, 1893

Died From Jumping Rope

Bessie Woodward, a pupil in the Amidon building living at 709 I street died on Thursday and was buried yesterday. With other children she was jumping the rope and continued to 200 times and on going was taken sick and died in 24 hours, Dr. Holden who attended her, attributed the cause to overexhaustion.