J.M. Woodward Rites to be Held Tomorrow

Funeral services for James M. Woodward, 77, president of the Woodward & Norris Real Estate Co., will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Union Methodist Church, 814 Twentieth Street, N.W. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Woodward, who died Tuesday at his home, 723 Twentieth Street, N.W. after an illness of several weeks, had been in the real estate business here for the last 51 years. A native of Washington, he was the son of the late Mark Rittenhouse Woodward and the late Martha Jane Pursell Woodward, both of whom were born in the District.

He was vice president of the Home Building Association and had previously served that organization as secretary for 40 years. He was a member of the Washington Real Estate Board, the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants, Hiram Masonic Lodge and the District Building and Loan Association League.

Surviving are two brothers, Dr. William C. Woodward, 2701 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., and Mark R. Woodward, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; two sisters, Miss Esther R. Woodward, 2456 Twentieth Street, N.W., and Mrs. Mary W. Pitts, Cleveland Heights, Ohio. His wife, Mrs. Lillie Clark Woodward and daughter, Miss Beall Woodward are both dead.
