

Suzanne H. Worford (- 12 Apr 1976)

Worford, Suzanne H. On Monday, April 12, 1976, Suzanne H. Worford, beloved wife of the late Claude Thomas Worford. Friends may call at Joseph Gawlers Sons, 5130 Wisconsin Avenue at Harrison Street northwest (parking on premises) Wednesday 2 to 4, 7 to 9 p.m., where services will be held on Thursday, April 15, at 12:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery. Memorials to the National Lutheran Home.

The Washington Post, April 15, 1976, p. C9

Suzanne Worford, Department of Commerce Employee

Suzanne H. Worford, 83, a retired Commerce Department employee, died Monday at Doctors Hospital.

Born in Laurel, Md., she lived in Washington as a child and graduated from Central High School.

Mrs. Worford retired as a clerk in the Commerce Department library in 1950 after many years of service. She was the widow of Claude Thomas Worford, who retired that same year from the Navy Department. He died in 1954.

A resident of the Kennedy-Warren, 3133 Connecticut Ave. NW, Mrs. Worford had belonged to the former St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

There are no immediate survivors.

It is suggested that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the National Lutheran Home here.