

Charles E. Worthington ( - 1 Mar 1927)

---

Worthington. March 1, 1927 at his residence, 3018 Porter st. n.w., Charles E., beloved husband of the late Frances E. Worthington and father of Norine E. Anthony. Funeral services (private) a Hysong funeral home, 1300 N st. nw., Thursday, March 3, at 1:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, March 3, 1927, p. 9

Charles Worthington Dies At Age of 72

Vice President of Metropolis Building Association Long Resident of Capital

Charles E. Worthington, 72 years old, vice president of the Metropolis Building Association for the past three years, died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Norine Anthony, 318 Porter street.

Mr. Worthington was born in Alefa, Va., and came to Washington when a young man and was in the grocery business until he retired 25 years ago. He was connected with the Metropolis Building Association for 20 years, serving as secretary for 17 years prior to his election to the vice presidency.

He is survived by his daughter and a son, Guy V. Worthington of this city.

The funeral was at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. John Weidley, pastor of the Church of the Reformation, officiating. Burial was in Congressional Cemetery.