D.C. Man Is Held In Companion's Death

Special Dispatch to The Star

Martinsburg, W. Va., April 3 -- A man who identified himself as Alfred T. Davis of the 1000 block of G street S.E. Washington, was being held here today pending an investigation in the death of another Washingtonian, Charles E. Wrenn of the first block of Newton street N.W., whose body was found along the right of way of the B. & O. Railroad near Gaithersburg, Md., early yesterday.

Davis told police his companion, with whom he had jumped aboard a train in Washington, leaped off near Gaithersburg. Police indicated Davis will be returned to Montgomery County, Md., as a material witness in Wrenn's death.
