Mary Young, Secretary and Ex-FHA Aide

Miss Mary Ryan Young, 58, sister of Mrs. Robert M. LaFollette, jr., and a former Federal Housing Administration employe and private secretary, died Thursday at Doctor's Hospital of a stroke following an operation. She was the social secretary to the wife of Admiral Neill Phillips.

Miss Young served during the 1920s as secretary to Mrs. O.H.P. Belmont, social leader, in France. When she returned to Washington, she joined the National Recovery Administration. In 1934, she became assistant to the administrator of the Federal Housing Administration.

She leaves four sisters, Mrs. LaFollette, the Misses Louise and Matilda Young of Washington and Mrs. Sophia Stokes of Los Angeles, Calif., and a brother, Arthur Young of Peoria, Ill.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Pumphrey Funeral Home, 7557 Wisconsin avenue, Bethesda.
