

William T. Howe

(- 5 Sep 1960)

Howe, William T. On Monday, September 5, 1960, at George Washington University Hospital, William T. Howe of 815 18th st. nw., father of William E. Howe and brother of Mrs. Ella Gilbertson. Friends may call at Gawler's Chapel, 1756 Pennsylvania ave. nw. (courtesy parking, corner 18th and G sts. nw.), after 10 a.m. Wednesday, September 7, where services will be held on Thursday, September 8, at 2:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, September 6, 1960, p. B4

William T. Howe

William T. Howe, 80, a former employe of the credit department of the Washington Gas Light Company, died yesterday at George Washington University Hospital.

When he retired in 1945, Mr. Howe had been with the Gas Company more than 30 years. He also had worked for several years at the Navy Yard here.

A native of Annapolis, Mr. Howe moved to Washington as a young man and played baseball for several semi-professional teams in the area. He served in the Navy during the Spanish-American War.

The Evening Star, September 6, 1960, p. B4

William T. Howe, Veteran of 1898

William T. Howe, 80, a retired employe of the Washington Gas Light Co., died yesterday in George Washington University Hospital.

Mr. Howe was born in Annapolis, Md., and moved to Washington as a young man. He served in the Navy during the Spanish-American War and was a civilian employe in the Washington Navy Yard for several years.

Mr. Howe, who retired in 1945, was an employe in the credit department of the Washington Gas Light Co. for more than 30 years. For the last 20 years he lived at 815 Eighteenth street N.W.

Mr. Howe leaves a son, William E. Howe, of the home address, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Gilbertson, of 5524 Ninth street N.W. Friends may call at Gawler's Funeral Home, 1756 Pennsylvania avenue N.W.